Does anyone read these intros?
[1] The Secret Public

Savage, Jon and Sterling, Linder (artists and publishers). Manchester, UK: 1978. Side folding wraps, 16 ½ by 23 ¼ inches when unfolded. 12 pp. Black and white clip art/collages throughout. A one off zine style piece, taking the punk art aesthetic of clip art and collage to a new level. Created by Jon Savage and Linder Sterling in 1978, the zine provided social commentary on gender and gender roles, portraying fractured women in domestic settings, as well as skewering masculinity and its impact on the punk scene and society in general (Poynor, p. 23). GOOD condition. Moderate foxing to the exterior, with minor wrinkling and soiling. Some toning along the extremities. A few faint finger smudges present. $1200.00

Hodgson, John et al. John Hodgson, publisher. Thornaby, UK: no date, perhaps 1977, based on the review of a show that was part of the 1977 Stiffs Greatest Stiffs Tour. Side stapled wraps. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 20 pp., including covers. Great front cover art. Black and white photos and illustrations throughout. A fanzine from Northern UK, focusing on local acts, but with coverage of bigger names in punk and new wave. Interviews with the Sex Pistols, Buzzcocks, and Doctors of Madness, as well as short reviews and pieces on many other bands, big and small. GOOD condition. Rear page very tenuously holding on to a single staple, may become detached with any further handling. Minor toning and soiling, with a small area of staining to the rear cover. Wrinkling and creasing along the extremities. Minor tearing at the staples and along the bottom front cover edge. $150.00
[3] Gabba Gabba Hey No. 4

Hodgson, John et al. John Hodgson, publisher. Thornaby, UK: no date, perhaps 1977, based on the review of a show that was part of the 1977 Stiffs Greatest Stiffs Tour. Side stapled wraps. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 20 pp., including covers. Black and white photos and illustrations throughout. This issue includes an interview with Elvis Costello; a family tree style page documenting local punk bands, their various lineups and name changes, etc.; Slaughter and the Dogs interview; Rezillo’s news, etc. VERY GOOD condition. Some rusting, with minor rust stains, at the staples. Minor toning and edgewear.

$150.00
[4] Vortex Issue No. 1

No author given. Vortex Club, Publisher. London: 1977. Single stapled zine format. 13 by 8 ½ inches. 16 pp. Black and white photos/illustrations throughout. First issue of this fanzine published by the Vortex Club in London. Vortex was a 24 hour punk club that opened in 1977 and lasted for 9 months, providing a venue for a variety of punk acts. This with pieces on the Boomtown Rats, The Radiators and others. GOOD condition. Moderate creasing, wrinkling and browning to the zine, with minor soiling and staining. Several staple holes present at the upper left corner. (Poynor, pages 190 and 245). $150.00

Wild Dog, Henry. Henry Wild Dog, Publisher. Houston: 1979. Illustrated wraps. 28 pp., including covers. Black and white illustrations throughout. Created by Henry Wild Dog to cover the punk scene in Houston (after his “conversion” from long-haired Yippie to punk). Wild Dog was founded after a Rock Against Racism show, and gave a voice to underground writers and artists in the Houston area. With some political commentary, pieces on The Hates, The Normals and others. GOOD condition. Faint staining along the left side, with minor foxing.
and soiling. Minor scuffing along the extremities. (see Wilddogzine website for aforementioned historical information). $175.00

No author given. Sunday Mirra, Publisher. Hayes, UK: no date, presumed 1978. Single stapled format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. Black and white photos throughout. 17 leaves, most printed on single sides, with some exceptions. A few leaves printed on pink or light green paper. Fifth issue of this British fanzine (according to an editor statement in a previous issue), that “re-appropriated the negative, sensationalist coverage of punk in the tabloid press for its own ends” (Poynor, p. 333). Despite its straightforward format, Sunday Mirra combined good photography and clean layout to present news and gossip on the punk and new wave scene dosed with a tinge of sarcastic commentary. Pieces on Kiljoy, Dose, 999, Toots and the Maytals in the reggae section, Wire, etc. VERY GOOD condition. Minor toning, soiling and creasing at the staple corner. $175.00

No authors or publisher given. London: 1977. Side stapled zine format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. Two fanzines in one, dos-a-dos style. 12 pages each. Black and white photos and art throughout. Zines combining punk music, politics and fashion. Tacky contains a lengthy fill in the blank interview with the Damned, accompanied by photography by Erika Echenberg, and an interview with the fashion designer Vivienne Westood. No future takes a more political tone, interviewing Mick Jones of the Clash talking art, as well as a short interview with Vivienne Westood. VERY GOOD condition. Minor wrinkling and curling, mostly along the extremities. Diagonal crease to the lower right corner. $200.00
[8] Trash-77 No. 3

Campbell, Craig. Craig Campbell, Publisher. Glasgow: 1977. Single stapled format. 11 5/8 by 8 ¼ inches. 10 leaves, printed on single sides only. A few poorly reproduced photos throughout. A fanzine intended to “fill the gap left when Tony Drayton moved Ripped and Torn to London” (Poynor p. 130). This with an interview with Joe Strummer, pieces and reviews of the Ramones, The Jolt, Blondie, The Clash and others. GOOD condition. Minor soiling and moderate toning. Minor wrinkling/creasing. $175.00
[9] Tomorrow the World. Issue 1

Great, Max. Max Great Publisher. London: no date, presumed 1977 based on the review of The Clash’s first album. Single stapled zine format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 11 leaves, printed on single sides only. Poorly reproduced photos throughout. Written by 17 year old Max Great (handwritten as he couldn’t type), Tomorrow the World offers an insider perspective on the London punk scene, at least as far as the average teenage fan is concerned. Inaugural issue, containing interviews with The Clash, The Jam and Generation X. FAIR/GOOD condition. Last leaf DETACHED. Minor general toning. Some curling and creasing at the corners. Minor rusting and staining at the staple. $130.00
[10] Garage Land No. 5

No author given. Garage Land, Publisher. Newcastle-Upon-Tyne, UK: 1977. Side stapled. 11 ¾ by 8 ¾ inches. 12 pp. Black and white photos throughout. Front cover drawing of Joey Ramone. A zine focusing mostly on bands in the punk scene, with an editorial musing on the public backlash against punk. Pieces on the Ramones, Talking Heads, Sex Pistols “God Save the Queen,” a Clash collage, etc. GOOD+ condition. Some rusting at the staples, with a few tiny rust spots to the covers. 25 p in pencil to the front cover. $125.00 [11] Surrey Vomet Number One.

Allen, Roger. Roger Allen, Publisher. Surrey, UK: no date, late 1970s. Single stapled wraps. 13 by 8 inches. 12 leaves, printed on single sides only. Collage and clip art throughout. Taking the name of the local paper “Surrey Comet,” Roger Allen created a fanzine that embraced a punk aesthetic to skewer punk and pop culture through collage and clip art, as well as short news/reviews of various punk acts. First issue, a visual feast of punk and comics mashed together. GOOD condition. General toning. A few minor spots of staining to the front cover. Extremities curled, creased and scuffed, with heavy wear to the upper left corner. $100.00

[12] Surrey Vomet Number Two.

Allen, Roger. Roger Allen, Publisher. Surrey, UK: no date, late 1970s. Single stapled wraps. 13 by 8 ¼ inches. 11 leaves, printed on single sides only. Collage and clip art throughout. Second issue of this zine, digressing from the usual coverage of the punk scene into a variety of clip art comics satirizing mainstream culture. A few pieces on punk acts. GOOD condition. Two hole punches along the left edge. Minor toning. Slight rusting at the staple. $75.00

Gurr, Ronnie et al. Gutter Press. Edinburgh: 1977. Single stapled zine format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. Printed on light blue paper stock with the exception of the second leaf, printed on white. This appears to be original to the zine (no evidence of other staple holes or re-stapling, corresponding rust from staple present, and no telltale borders indicating reproduction). 7 leaves, printed on both sides. A punk zine started by freelance music writer Ronnie Gurr, who also worked in the music/record industry in various capacities. The zine ran for seven issues, although based on an editorial in the seventh issue, Gurr was kicked off the editorial board for his “bad behavior,” (see Stillunusual post on tumblr). Pieces on Paul Weller, The Jolt, Generation X, the Vibrators and others. GOOD condition. Wrinkling and creasing along the edges and corners. Minor soiling. Some rusting at the staple. $100.00

[14] Hanging Around No. 6

Gurr, Ronnie et al. Gutter Press. Edinburgh: 1977. Single stapled zine format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 8 leaves, printed on both sides. This issue with pieces Stranglers, Siouxsie, Rock Against Racism, etc. GOOD+ condition. Wrinkling and creasing along the edges and corners. Last page wrinkled. $100.00

Inhulsen, Harald. Harald Inhulsen, publisher. Braunschweig, Germany: no date, presumed 1976. Side stapled. Approximately 11 5/8 by 8 3/8 inches wide. 15 leaves, printed on versos only, with the exception of the rear cover. Please note: we have had another copy of this that apparently had 17 leaves. There is no indication this copy had more than 15 leaves, as the very rusted staples match up with the rust stains, and there are no other staple holes present. The first issue of this fanzine devoted to Iggy Pop, featuring many black and white photos of Iggy Pop, as well as Inhulsen’s girlfriend wearing an Iggy Pop t-shirt and little else (see Trynka, Iggy Pop: Open up and Bleed, p. 220). This issue primarily features photos of Iggy Pop on stage and elsewhere, most poorly reproduced. With a little commentary on Asheton News and New Order, bands featuring former members of Iggy and Stooges and other Iggy Pop related bands. POOR condition. Heavy, but faint, dampstaining to the whole piece, with the front cover bearing ink smudging to the majority of the cover. Rust staining at the staples. Paper rippled. As is. $120.00

Savage, Jon et al. Sandy Robertson, Publisher. London: 1977. Single stapled zine on dark yellow paper. 11 ¾ by 8 ¾ inches. 11 leaves, printed on single sides only. Fourth issue of this zine primarily focusing on Patti Smith and her work. Created by Sandy Robertson, a poet and music journalist for the magazine Sounds. This issue mostly photos of Patti Smith, but with a short piece on Wilhelm Reich by Jon Savage. VERY GOOD condition. Minor fading and wrinkling. $100.00

Savage, Jon et al. Sandy Robertson, Publisher. London: 1977. Single stapled zine on yellow paper. 11 ¾ by 8 ¾ inches. 13 leaves, printed on single sides only. Two of leaf 10 included. Fifth issue, all things Patti Smith, including a page of reproduced art/notes by Smith. VERY GOOD condition. Minor fading and wrinkling. Faint creasing at the staple. $100.00

[18] In the City. #16.

Drake, Francis et al. In The City, Publisher. London: no date 1981. Side staples format with purple and black printed cover. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 28 pp, including covers. Black and white photos throughout. An issue of this fanzine that 'took an often acerbic look at the London scene,' as well as being one of the first fanzines to use color covers (Triggs p. 65). Featuring pieces on Bauhaus, Adam and the Ants, Killing Joke and others. GOOD condition.
Uneven fading, rubbing and scuffing to the covers. Some creasing along the extremities. (Berniere-Primois p. 227) $80.00

Waller, Johnny. Johnny Waller, Publisher. Fife, UK: 1978. Stapled zine format, along the top edge. 11 ¾ by 8 ¾ inches. 12 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout. A provincial zine created by Johnny Waller, providing local coverage of punk and new wave, encouraging “spontaneous participation and organiz[ing] competitions” (Berniere-Primois p. 225). This issue with pieces on the Damned, the Skids and others. VERY GOOD condition. Some wrinkling, minor rusting and toning along the top edge. Minor curling. Triggs pp. 68-69. $100.00

Waller, Johnny. Johnny Waller, Publisher. Fife, UK: 1979. Stapled zine format, along the top edge. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 16 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout. Issue 15, with pieces not on Gaye Advert (who graces the cover), but with bits on Freeze, Prats, Deleted Fakes and other not so well known punk/new wave acts. VERY GOOD condition. Some wrinkling, curling and toning along the top edge. Triggs pp. 68-69. $100.00

Fletcher, Tony. Tony Fletcher, Publisher. London: 1979. Light green side stapled wraps. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 40 pp., including covers. Photos throughout. Color ink covers, with pages printed in different color inks throughout. Ninth issue of this fanzine by Tony Fletcher, that ran from 1977 to 1984. Fletcher is perhaps best known as a rock journalist, publishing work on R.E.M. and Pete Townshend. He began this zine as a 13 year old, printing it at school for the first few issues before moving to Better Badges for printing, beginning with this issue. This issue was printed in a run of 2000 (see Fletcher’s Jamming website) and as Fletcher himself says about this issue, “The best issue ever, probably, in terms of pure fanzine energy and confidence. The Jam interview was hilarious, there was an editorial about the rampant 'tribalism' of the time that drew responses from major media, and Mark E Smith even sent a letter saying The Fall interview was the best he'd ever read.” With pieces and news on the The Jam, The Fall, The Selecter, PIL, Clash, Cabaret Voltaire, etc. GOOD condition. Some rusting at the staples. Minor soiling and toning. Faint horizontal fold crease present. Interior rather poorly reproduced in spots. (Triggs p. 84). $80.00

[22] Underground Beer (Issue 1)

page). With coverage of Scritti Politti, Iggy Pop and David Bowie, the Holidays, reviews of albums by the B-52s, Joy Division, etc. GOOD condition. Two smears of red ink to the front cover, presumably as issued, and somewhat aesthetic. Online images of the zine do not show the red ink. General toning. Some creasing and wrinkling along the corners and extremities. $125.00

Beer, Andrew et al. Andrew Beer, presumed Publisher. Croydon, UK: no date, circa 1979. Side stapled format. 13 by 8 inches. 22 pp. including covers. Black and white photos throughout. Issue number three of this Croydon, UK fanzine, by the creator of Underground Beer, containing interviews with Gang of Four and others, including interviews, taken from Slash magazine, with the Germs, U.X.A. and the Controllers. GOOD+ condition. Some toning along the extremities. Light curling and creasing. $75.00
[24] Shboom! Volume 1, Number 1

Strainer, Godfrey; La Mouche, Madame; Le Voyeur et al, authors. Shboom!, publisher. Falkirk, UK: no date, circa 1979. Single stapled zine format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 13 leaves, printed on single sides only. Various color paper stock used. A punk/new wave zine using small font to cram a large amount of news/information on a variety of bands. 1970s punk clip art aesthetic embraced, with two Daleks from Dr. Who on the front cover. Pieces on U2, Orchestral Manoeuvres [sic] in the Dark, Shake, The Cure, Scars, etc. VERY GOOD condition. Virgin Records price sticker on the front cover. Minor curling and creasing. A hint of foxing to the rear cover. $100.00

Various authors. Tony Kennedy, Publisher. Vancouver, BC: 1979. Tabloid newspaper format, roughly 16 ½ by 11 ¾ inches. 16 pp. Folded in half, as issued. Black and white photos throughout. Second issue of a total run of six issues of this New York Rocker style zine, founded by members of the underground paper Georgia Straight (see thepunkmovie website for previous and additional info). Interviews with the Subhumans, the Surrealists, Nick Lowe, as well as short pieces on Elvis Costello, Johnny Lydon/PIL, etc. GOOD+ condition. Small area of scuffing to the front cover where a thin layer of paper appears to have lifted off. Moderate chipping and tearing along the fore edge. Interior pages toned. $75.00

punk acts local to that area. With commentary on Insaniacs, Casual Carriers, and Tiny Desk Unit, among others. GOOD+ condition. Horizontal fold crease present. Minor to moderate uneven toning. $60.00

[27] Emetick. January 1980

Strangled, Mark et al. Mark Strangled, Publisher. No place (UK): 1980. Single stapled zine format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 22 pp. Black and white photos and clip art throughout. Presumed second issue (states second edition on the front cover). Obscure but well pieced together zine, offering a bit of history into its creation, incorporating people from Burnt Offering, Suspect Device and Anemic Cinema. Pieces on Adam and the Ants, Bauhaus, Madness, David Bowie, Suicide Victims and others. GOOD+ condition. Minor toning. A few small rust stains present. Light curling/creasing at the corners. $75.00
[28] Teenage Depression No. 5.

Banks, Geoff (editor). Teenage Depression, Publisher. Enfield, England: no date, perhaps circa 1978. Side stapled. 11 ¾ by 8 ¾ inches. 16 pp. Poorly reproduced black and white photos throughout. Some pages yellow with red ink. Fifth issue of this British fanzine produced by Geoff Banks, a writer for NME, Sounds and other venues in the 1970s and 80s. Teenage Depression covered punk and rock/metal acts. This with the Ramones (including cover photo), The Dictators, The Boys and Flaming Groovies, and more. GOOD+ condition. Minor toning, soiling and edgewear. $80.00

[29] Teenage Depression No. 6.

Banks, Geoff (editor). Teenage Depression, Publisher. Enfield, England: no date, perhaps circa 1978. Side stapled. 11 ¾ by 8 ¾ inches. 24 pp. Poorly reproduced black and white photos throughout. Curling along the spine and minor chipping along the extremities. $80.00

Banks, Geoff (editor). Teenage Depression, Publisher. Enfield, England: no date, perhaps circa 1978. Side stapled. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 24 pp. Poorly reproduced black and white photos throughout. Number seven, with Van Halen, Tanz Der Youth, Rich Kids, UFO, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers, Thin Lizzy, the Dictators, etc. GOOD condition. Minor toning, soiling and edgewear. Minor staining to the upper rear edge. Front cover with many small, superficial indents. $70.00

[31] White Noise No. 4

X, Paul; Vile, Jerry; Hait, Kati et al. White Noise, Publisher. Detroit: no date, perhaps late 1978-1979. Tabloid newspaper format. 14 ½ by 11 ½ inches. 32 pp. Black and white photos and illustrations throughout. A zine inspired by Slash and others, devoted to the Detroit punk zine. Started by Paul Zimmerman and Jerry Vile (of the Boners), it ran for a total of six issues. This issue includes contributions by Katy or Kati Hait of the Sillies, as well as a drawing on the rear cover attributed to Niagra (presumably Niagara of Destroy All Monsters). Pieces on the Mumps, Mutants, Ultravox, Lou Reed and others. GOOD condition. Horizontal fold crease present, as issued. Moderate to heavy toning. Minor chipping along the extremities. $75.00

Ginsberg, Allen; Vale, V. et al. San Francisco: Search and Destroy, Publisher, 1977. Newspaper/tabloid format. 17 1/2 by 11 1/2 inches. With a center horizontal fold crease. 16 pp. Black and white photos and clip art throughout. Front page illustration of a safety pinned pilot. Reddish pink globe also present with the zine name within. No red printing on the front cover other than this, one of many variants seen. Search and Destroy was founded and published by V. Vale in 1977 while working at City Lights Bookstore. Vale received initial donations from Allen Ginsberg and Lawrence Ferlinghetti to finance this zine that he hoped would be 'a clone of Andy Warhol's Interview' (see interview with V. Vale on Examiner website, July 2009). Mixing interviews, articles and photos, Search and Destroy presented well-written pieces documenting punk and new wave music and their accompanying aesthetic. Jello Biafra called Search and Destroy 'The greatest underground zine I've ever seen in my life.' (Berniere and Primois pp. 218-219). Search and Destroy evolved into RE/Search in 1980. First issue, featuring a review of a punk show in San Francisco at the 'Gabba-Hey Gardens;' an interview with the band Crime; a collage centerfold of various punk/new wave bands; 'The Politics of Punk' by Nico Ordway and a short piece by Allen Ginsberg on New Wave. Several photos by noted San Francisco punk photographer James Stark present. GOOD condition. 2 inch triangular wrinkled tear to the center front cover. Paper browned, with minor soiling. Minor creasing and a few tiny tears along the extremities. $150.00

Samiof, Steven; Nissen, Melanie (editors). Various authors. Slash, Publisher. Los Angeles: 1978. Newspaper tabloid format. 32 pp, including covers. Black and white photos throughout. Approximately 15 by 11 ½ inches. Slash Magazine was a Los Angeles based fanzine, published from 1977-1980, and from which the record label Slash Records grew (Triggs, p. 66). Claude Bessy, a senior editor at Slash stated ‘It started as a bluff, we were pretending there was an L.A. scene when there was no scene whatsoever. The magazine was it.’ (Berniere and Primois p. 219). Issue seven, featuring interviews with the Stranglers, Black Randy, Crisis, Dickies, Controllers and others; many short record reviews, reviews of shows, etc. Rear cover a full page ad for a Ramones and Runaways show.
